The Eugene McDermott Scholars Program at The University of Texas at Dallas is one of the nation's most generous and distinctive undergraduate merit awards for extraordinary students.

Valued at more than $250,000 (out-of-state) or $150,000 (in-state), the scholarship includes tuition, stipend, study abroad and professional development funding.

McDermott Scholars have:
· Interned at Amazon, Microsoft, J. P. Morgan, U.S. Supreme Court, NPR, NIH and CERN.
· Gone on to further their education at Harvard, Yale, MIT, Stanford, Johns Hopkins and Cambridge.
· Won Fulbrights, Goldwaters, NSF Fellowships, Udalls, a Schwarzman and a Gates-Cambridge.
· Worked at Activision, Google, Microsoft, McKinsey, Texas Instruments, the White House, the UN, NASA, Cleveland Clinic and PricewaterhouseCoopers.

At UT Dallas, students have access to distinguished faculty, innovative academic programs, nationally recognized research and countless career-oriented opportunities.

Deadline: Dec. 1, 2019 for the UT Dallas application and Dec. 12, 2019 for the McDermott Scholars application.

COLLEGE SPOTLIGHT:
Willamette College is across the street from the State Capital in Oregon. Generally students that choose Willamette are the type who want to be involved, feel valued as a customer, are civically engaged and/or athletically engaged, and are okay being pushed by professors to grow as students. The professors serve as mentors and there is a friendly “Oregonian” vibe on campus. The school has very generous merit aid packages, a majority of students are from California. The average GPA of admitted students is about 3.9 weighted, with a 28 on the ACT as the average. Demonstrated interest matters in the admissions process and they are need blind when reviewing applicants. To learn more, join us for the Willamette presentation on: Wednesday, November 6 at 7:50am in the College and Career Center.
