SUMMER ENRICHMENT: Knowledge@Wharton High School — KWHS for short — is on a mission to provide high school students and educators around the world with a deeper understanding of business and personal finance and to equip them with the skills to excel in the global marketplace. They are a part of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, a world leader in business education. They are announcing the latest addition to their KWHS Global Young Leaders Academy – a two-week finance program happening this summer on Wharton’s Philadelphia campus. Expanding on the business and entrepreneurship session that they have run successfully for five years, GYLA-Finance is an entirely different academic experience that includes similar fun activities and opportunities to build relationships with students from around the world. For information, visit: http://kw.wharton.upenn.edu/gyla-finance/apply-now/

Foresight Prep @ Oberlin is an intensive, four week pre-college institute for 10 motivated high school students passionate about social equity and the environment. They facilitate hands-on seminars designed to empower motivated high school students to take action on urgent issues, and a year-round network connecting alumni with real world changemakers for ongoing mentorship. Visit the program website to learn more, and apply!

Scholarships are available for CyberMath Academy's summer camps. Interested students can sign up for consideration here.
